

9-9546

3 January 1958

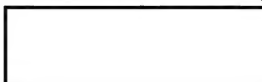

Dear Ken:

Many thanks for your good note of the 21st of December. I was very much interested in your comments.

Meanwhile, very best wishes for the New Year.

Sincerely,

Kenneth M. Seggerman, Esq.

AWD/ji

1 - DCI

1 - ER w/basic

STATOTHR

"If there is any hope for the world," said Allen Dulles recently, "and I think there is, it lies in the fact that the Soviet Union has taught virtually every Russian to read." It is well for all Americans to remember that beneath the strictures of a police state, the Russian mil-

Approved For Release 2002/05/09 : CIA-RDP80B01676R003900010115-4

KENNETH M. SEGGERMAN

STATOTHR

12 / 21

Dear Allen. If you made this statement as reported,
I congratulate you. because I think it makes a lot of sense. No one could read the great Russian literature of the 19th century & keep a closed mind about life, & maybe that will be my salvation. However, I think that somebody should be

Approved For Release 2002/05/09 : CIA-RDP80B01676R003900010115-4

KENNETH M. SEGGERMAN

Suade the big chads in the Ham to do the same

I wish you & Jane a very happy Christmas - & please don't bother to answer this silly letter.

Ken.